

Subject Societies and Clubs

Khalsa College, in order to instill the qualities of leadership, managerial skills and participative learning in the students, have formed the Subject Societies at the departmental level for promoting and organizing Seminars, Guest Lectures, Quiz, Blood Donation Camps etc. The students studying in the particular department are the members of these societies. The activities of these societies are planned and organized by the students themselves. The student members of the respective departmental society elect their own President, Secretary and finance Secretary. The formation of societies has resulted in a wonderful experience indeed as the teachers and students played active role in the functioning of these Societies.

The following different subject societies work under the convenorship of Heads of the Departments who complete the exercise of structuring the societies and submit the report to the Principal's office with the details of the names of Co-conveners, President, Secretary and Members.
