

Gallery No. 2

This magnificent gallery boasts an impressive collection of awe-inspiring paintings of the revered Sikh Guru Sahiban, Bhagat Sahiban, Bhatti-Banikars, four Sahibzadas, and Banda Singh Bahadar, Sikh generals of the 18th century, along with the visionary leaders of Sikh Misls and Dominions. The illustrious Sher-i-Punjab Maharaja Ranjit Singh and his esteemed generals, ministers, princes, and other family members were also featured in stunning pictorial representations. The gallery also proudly displays ancient coins and manuscripts that belong to the rich legacy of Sikh History and Religion, presented with remarkable beauty and precision.
